HR Policy

Leave, attendance, work arrangements and employee support

DEMO DATA NOTICE
Fictional policy content created solely for the SecureRAG portfolio project. All names, email addresses, procedures and monetary limits are synthetic examples. Do not treat this document as a real employer policy.

1. Purpose and scope

This policy applies to all full-time employees of TechNova Solutions, a fictional technology services company. It describes standard HR practices for leave, attendance, working hours and flexible work. These rules are synthetic sample data created for the SecureRAG demonstration; they are not legal advice or a real employer policy.

2. Working hours and attendance

Standard working hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday to Friday, with a one-hour lunch break. Employees are expected to record attendance through the company attendance portal.

Employees should notify their manager and HR Operations if they expect to be more than 15 minutes late. Repeated unexplained late arrivals may be reviewed by the manager and HR.

3. Annual and casual leave

Full-time employees receive 18 days of annual paid leave per calendar year. Annual leave should normally be requested at least 5 working days in advance and requires manager approval.

Employees receive 6 days of casual leave per calendar year. Casual leave may be requested for short-notice personal matters. Employees should inform their manager as early as reasonably possible.

Unused annual leave may be carried forward up to a maximum of 5 days into the next calendar year. Casual leave cannot be carried forward or encashed.

4. Sick leave

Employees may take up to 8 days of sick leave per calendar year. For an absence of more than 2 consecutive working days, HR may request a medical certificate. Employees should notify their manager before the normal start of the workday where possible.

5. Work from home

Employees may request up to 2 work-from-home days per week, subject to team coverage, role requirements and manager approval. WFH days must be recorded in the attendance portal.

Employees working remotely must use approved company devices, connect through the company VPN when accessing internal resources, and avoid discussing confidential matters in public places.

6. Applying for leave

Submit leave requests through the HR portal. The manager reviews the request, and HR Operations maintains the official leave balance. A request is not approved until its status changes to Approved.

7. HR contact

For leave balances, attendance corrections or policy questions, contact hr@technova.example. The sample HR service hours are 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on business days.
